2008 PET FIX - PIMA ANIMAL CARE CENTER and AWASA TO OFFER FREE SPAY/NEUTER SERVICES

Tucson, Arizona – The offer ends December 31, so time is running out for pet owners residing in predetermined neighborhoods in Pima County to schedule free spay/neuter surgeries for their companion animals. The spay/neuter surgeries will be performed on both dogs and cats that are between 2 months and 5 years old, weighing at least 3 pounds.

These services are targeted to the following identified communities, but are not limited to those living in Pueblo Gardens; Littletown; Midvale Park, Barrio Hollywood; South Tucson; Picture Rocks; Pascua Yaqui; Catalina; Ajo; Arivaca; Three Points; Avra Valley; the Tohono O’odham Nation; and the Nogales Highway Neighborhoods. Appointments can be made by calling the Animal Birth Control, 1114 S. Craycroft, at 624-5005, Arizona Spay Neuter Clinic, 4 W. Grant, at 745-4564; Eastside Spay & Neuter Pet Clinic, 7036 E. Broadway at 731-1714; or the Humane Society of Southern Arizona, 3720 N. Kelvin, at 881-0321.

The services are being provided through a partnership between the Animal Welfare Alliance of Southern Arizona and the Pima Animal Care Center. For more information contact Jayne at 243-5920, or visit www.pimaanimalcare.org
